

ROARK

RUN / ACTIVE
FALL 25'

On an eternal pursuit of adventure, we believe there's no better way to see the world than by running through it.

An insatiable curiosity for the unknown leads us to constantly seek the trail less traveled.

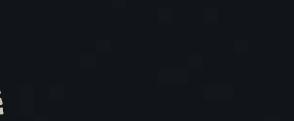

Roark
Invites You

To Run
Amok

Our experiences led us to cut a new path in active apparel that values expression nearly as much as it does function.

Roark's journey provides a unique perspective on trail running and active wear born from adventure - found somewhere between freedom and chaos.

Elite

SPEED ISN'T JUST FOR THE ROAD.

With trail racing in mind, we are proud to present the Run Amok "Elite" Line. Progressive and minimal design guided our pursuit to go faster and lighter as we seek new trails and new heights. Get on the train - it isn't slowing down.

Our inspiration is drawn from the ancient wisdom
found in Nature's rituals - seasonal change, metamorphosis and the endless cycle we live amongst and participate in.

HABITUAL RITUALS

It's the shaping of stone and those quirky little acts we engage in that pull us into the wild embrace of nature. The collection weaves artifacts with the Earth, colored in dusty purple and sand.

Habitual Rituals become our lifelines,
keeping us grounded and alive.

Run In Peace

With trail racing in mind, we are proud to present the Run Amok "Elite" Line. Progressive and minimal design guided our pursuit to go faster and lighter as we seek new trails and new heights. Get on the train - it isn't slowing down.

Secondwind

PACKABLE PROTECTION

Nonstop your running, you want to make sure you have your base covered. The Secondwind packable shell does just that. Constructed from an ultra-lightweight stretch ripstop fabric with a no-shine dry feel and durable water-resistant finish, the jacket is prepared for most situations you'll find yourself in. Packable into the chest, this is your new go-to piece when your unsure which direction the weather will go, or you need a little extra warmth.

- Packable Into Pocket
- Water Resistant Finish (DWR)
- Internal Cuffs With Thumb Loops
- Laser Cut Underarm Vents
- Reflective Prints

Bless Up Trail

TECHNICALLY COOL

There's an old adage that says "if you look good, you run good". Challenge accepted. The Bless Up Trail is our technical button up, tailored to both perform and look good at the highest level. Its main benefit lies in the breathable microperforated fabric that stretches and maintains its durability. Designed with a relaxed collar and straight bottom hem, it dumps heat and keeps you cooler than cool.

- Lightweight Highly Breathable Shirt
- Mechanical Stretch
- Quick Dry & Moisture Wicking
- Made With Tactel™ Nylon Fibers
- Soft Rubberized Buttons
- Camp-Style Collar Slim Fit

Mathis

CASUAL PERFORMANCE

Casual in appearance, technical in function. The Mathis active tee embodies the spirit of the adventurer, melding fabric, form and function into a top born out of necessity. Constructed from a lightweight DriRelease jersey knit, the Mathis encourages freedom of expression through movement. Enjoy the performance required for a long day on the trails without compromising your style.

Cold Weather

Roark's cold weather line up does as one expects, delivering exceptional function and mind melting graphics for the trail or road. Whether you're layering up to shed as the day warms or pulling on tights and track pants built for movement, this gear is designed to outlast you. Your search for cold weather gear that goes harder and stays up later than you? It ends here.
